

Dashboard

The dashboard displays a video of Dr. Emma Watson speaking. It features several data visualizations: a word frequency chart, a sentiment analysis chart, a word cloud, and a vocabulary breakdown. The video player shows the video is at 00:30. The dashboard also includes a sidebar with navigation links and a top bar with the user's name and profile picture.

Fancy a STORYTELLING DASHBOARD which works as your very own presentation / performance coach? For FREE??!! 🤖

This is starting to look promising...

This sketchy screenshot is from a tool I'm developing at the moment. I've been having fun playing with live dashboards to explore how Agentic AI can help to analyse story structure, tone, body language, sentiment, keywords and overall presentation delivery – so that anyone can have instant feedback directly from an MP4 or URL.
